THE APARTMENT

Check out all of my listings if you don't see dates you need.
PLEASE read all of description (thank you)
Walk out of the front door 15 steps to the beach in the heart of the pueblo of Luquillo, in a section called La Pared. A beautiful view of the ocean and a path steps away to the main strip to the beaches and local surf bar, the location is fabulous.
(The bar plays live music on the weekend it is down the street, so you will be able to hear it on the weekends.)
10 minutes from the rain forest and just 35 minutes from the San Juan Airport, this is the perfect little island surfer town to take you away from the hustle and bustle of the city life.

YOUR ROOM

A tropical, warm, intimate guest room is provided with 100% cotton 400 thread count sheets as well as soft Egyptian cotton towels and extra large beach towels UPON request.

Colorful and Cozy with bright bohemian inspired decor.

All of the art is original and for sale if interested.

Huge closet space.

Fans

This is a local experience and intended to be so. The Apartment is a 5 unit building and is 40 plus years old. The street is very quiet, especially for local living. (there are unoccupied houses on the street)

The residents are older and will always greet you with a smile and a Buenos Dia in the morning, Buenos Tardes in the afternoon and Buenos Noches in the evening.

LAUNDRY

We are Happy to do your laundry for $10 a load. Upon Request local laundromat is within walking distance if needed.

As with a lot of buildings in Puerto Rico there no air conditioner. But the ocean breeze is DIVINE!!

This is a local pueblo, and every once in a while the water pressure may go low, please don't be alarmed and know that it will not last.

Guest access

SHARED SPACE

"Come as strangers, leave as friends"

We provide a spacious living room area with TV to watch if so desired.

The front balcony is fabulous with an amazing view with two picnic tables and lounge chairs to relax, eat a yummy meal and enjoy.

Cafe lights for evening entertainment.

Back Balcony with a view of the top of El Yunque rainforest is perfect for taking a nap in the hammock or eating on the little cafe table....a getaway within a getaway.

Enjoy Coffee or Tea in the kitchen with all the fixins.

We offer a fully equipped kitchen to cook in, with spices and infused olive oil.

2 Bathrooms with showers. Warm water in one and natural water in the other.

**Don't forget to try our Refreshing aroma therapy spring water sprays in the Fridge and Homemade coconut brown sugar scrub in the shower

Interaction with guests

Molly and Pedro live on site in a private apartment and are available anytime for any of your needs.

Other things to note

Beaches: 10 miles of breathtaking, beautiful shoreline.

La Pared Beach: Just a minute from the house is Luquillo's town beach - La Pared (the wall).

Overview · Reviews · The Host · Location

Share Save

"La Selva" - Nature Reserve Beach: Facing the ocean at La Pared - you'll see the two towers of Sandy Hills condominium to your right. Just walk over the rocks in front of the condos and you'll come to the North East Ecological Reserve. You can walk for miles to enjoy undeveloped beach and great birdwatching. Be aware of several inlets that you may have to wade across or swim if the tide raises during your walk.

Playa Azul (Blue Beach): To the left of La Pared Beach, walk around the point and you'll come to a quiet beach near Luquillo's cluster of high-rise condos at Costa Azul. About a 15 minute walk from the house. This is the best beach for Snorkeling!

Luquillo Public Beach - Playa Monserrate: Continue past Costa Azul and you'll find an undeveloped point where you can imagine you're on a deserted island. Cross a few inlets and you'll round the bend near the campground to arrive at the most famous public beach in Puerto Rico. This is a 'Blue Flag' beach, so it is well maintained and continually checked for water quality. Here you'll find showers, rest rooms, food stands and lots of families having a great time! About a 25 minute walk from the house. Note: you can walk on the road to the public beach in about 15 minutes from the house.

Kioskos: Just past the public beach are 60 'Kioskos' or food stalls. There are usually 20 or 30 stands open so just walk along until you find one that makes you want to stop and enjoy some great Puerto Rican street food. You'll find everything from fine dining to street food, tacky souvenirs and nightclubs - so its something you won't want to check out.

If you get all the way to the kioskos, you may want to consider walking back on the road that goes from the parking lot by the campground behind the Playa Azul condominiums then past the cemetery, Brass Cactus Restaurant, Le Flamboyant Restaurant, Laundromat, King Seafood Restaurant and the new ballpark before arriving at Pio, Pio Express Fried Chicken and the town plaza.

Beyond the town center:

There is a shopping center with Amigo supermarket and a Walgreens drug store. just across Route #3 from where you turned to come into town.

There are also lots of fast food outlets (McDonald's, KFC, Taco Maker, William's Pizza, Tiny Frog Café, Chinese, etc in front of the shopping center along with a large Walgreen's.

If you drive about 15 minutes further on Route #3 you'll come to Fajardo where you'll find larger stores like Walmart, Kmart, Supermarkets, etc.

Fajardo also has the very large El Conquistador Resort with its Water Park and access to Palomino Island (private beach).

Fajardo also has the ferries that go to Puerto Rico's 'Spanish Virgin Islands' of Culebra and Vieques.

Fajardo also has Seven Seas Beach and the nearby Bio-luminescent Bay. Note: you can only tour the bio-bay by kayak with a registered eco-tour operator unless you register for the night-tours operated by The Conservation Trust of Puerto Rico which allow you to walk through the mangroves with expert guides.

Molly was a great host and her space is a comfortable environment, where travellers mingle in common spaces, and you get to know people from all over. The view is awesome on the patio, and you can hear the ocean waves at night.

Response from Molly:

Lynne thank you for staying with us!!! We loved meeting you!!! Hope to see you soon!

This place is very quaint and cozy. It can be loud at night but, that is the area.

Response from Molly:

Thanks Felicia! We are glad you enjoyed your stay!

The neighborhood

Molly's home is located in Luquillo, (/s/Luquillo--Puerto-Rico) Puerto Rico (/s/Puerto-Rico).

Staying here at LoveSoulBeautiful Guest house you will appreciate and adore the local experience of a true island surfing town. Everything is in walking distance (steps away) from the local coffee shop, homemade ice cream parlor to the 5 star delicious seafood and fun local bar with live music on the weekends.

Some guests have commented on the many unoccupied houses in the area on my street and between the plaza and the ocean. This is not unique to Luquillo - but more concentrated here. I will stress that it is SAFE.

Many of the house have been in families for many generations and distant relatives don't often agree on who should have use of a house, the value of a house if they do agree to sell, or what percentage should go to whom. This is being addressed gradually, with local ordinances that will encourage families to either fix a house or sell it... but this will take a few years to go into effect. You'll also see examples of this in San Juan's Ocean Park neighborhood where some of the old houses ruin the ambiance. You can either view this as 'the charm of the Caribbean' or an eyesore... and book accordingly. Everyone in town knows which family owns each house - and they probably have some story of growing up there, or friends who lived there... but it is definitely a town in transition.

Exact location information is provided after a booking is confirmed.
